

Welcome to Special Olympics North Carolina!

Special Olympics North Carolina (SONC) is a non-profit organization which provides sports training and competition for over 45,000 children and adults with intellectual disabilities. In North Carolina, 20 sports are offered on a year-round basis; sport offerings vary by local program (primarily county).

Special Olympics was created by the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. Foundation. Special Olympics North Carolina is authorized and accredited by Special Olympics Inc. and is licensed by the Secretary of State's office with the State of North Carolina and is a 501(c)3 organization as determined by the Internal Revenue Service.

Special Olympics athletes get continuing opportunities, to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.

To become a Special Olympics athlete, contact the local program in your county. A full list of contact information is available on the Web site at www.sonc.net.

Athlete Eligibility

Special Olympics training and competition is open to every person with an intellectual disability who is at least eight years of age. There is no maximum age limit. Eligible individuals must be identified by a medical agency or professional as having an intellectual disability. Some Special Olympics athletes may also have a physical disability, but it is their developmental disability that qualifies them to participate in Special Olympics.

Children who are ages two through seven may participate in the Young Athletes Program (there is a different registration form for this program).

Registration Procedure

To become a new athlete:

- Basic Info & Health History Form (2 pages): This section captures health history in order to understand an athlete's health status. This section must be completed by a parent/guardian or an adult athlete who is his/her own guardian.

- Release & Waiver Form (2 pages): This form goes over some important details about Special Olympics participation and requires a signature. This will only need to be completed one time. The Release/Waiver Form instructs you to complete other forms in certain situations. Those will be sent out to be completed on a case by case basis.

- Code of Conduct (1 page): It is important that we all have clear expectations of how we act and treat each other. While a signature is not required here, a local coordinator or coach may ask everyone to sign to indicate agreement.

This form is good for one year. After the first time an athlete completes this full form, they will be prompted to complete a simple renewal form each year to continue participation.

Please submit registration forms to your local program coordinator – contact information can be found at www.sonc.net.
